meaningful projects in her area.*

I do my social action at the Swansea Youth Bank which is a youth led, grant giving panel that provides grants to groups of young people to develop and run their own community projects across Swansea to help improve the local community.

I volunteer my time on that panel to support other youth led projects in my area. At the Swansea Youth Bank grant panel we make decisions regarding the set up of the Youth Bank (ie. the criteria, the design of the application process and how the Youth Bank will run). We also help decide which projects get funded by the Youth Bank, evaluate those projects who have received the funding and help publicise the Swansea Youth Bank

Through taking part in this panel, I have a great understanding of social action, how it helps to build communities, and also how it helps me and others who get involved, and take part.

At my age, it's great to have an organisation that supports me to get involved, because my opinions get heard, and I get to make decisions that have a positive impact on my community. It's just the beginning for me!

"I have developed a greater understanding of social action and how it can have a positive impact on myself and others."
